BRIEF ABSTRACT OF LETTER

Prays that after hearing his representations, the Govt order directing the assumption of the management may be cancelled.

NOTES AND ORDERS

The office note in RC no 229-10 (herewith enclosed) gives a clear account of the facts of the case. In G.O. no. 108-9 Dy 12th July 1911 it was directed that the management of the temples of Sri Anjaneya Devaru, Subrahmanya Devaru and Gopalakrishna Devaru in Kyarvalli village be assumed by Govt and a scale of expr was sanctioned

2 Vahivatdar Subbanna prays that the above order may be reviewed for the following among other reasons:—

1) that the temples in question were constructed and the idols consecrated by his ancestors some 100 years ago (the Sanad of 1813 makes mention of the fact) and the Inam lands were endowed by them for the benefit of the insts,

2) that he is a Sahukar and does not want to make any profit out of the temples,

3) that the manage vests in his family & he has been in charge of the insts as Vahivatdar for 30 years past, during which period he had arranged for Puja etc properly

4) that the hidden treasure found near the Temples some time ago rightly belonged to him and he gave up his claim and the money was invested for the Temples,

5) that in the absence of satisfactory reasons, he should not be deprived of his last and the Amildar who reported against him was ill disposed towards him -

3 He prays that after hearing him, the order sought to be reviewed may be cancelled and the Vahivat restored to him, and permission to maintain regular accounts -

4 This perhaps is a case for hearing the petr before orders are passed.

5 Submitted for orders as to whether the M (1327) 29-2-12 review application may be entertained and records called for. It may be noted that the petr was not heard before the G.O. directing the management of the Temples being taken over, was passed Mr. L. S U B J E C T:-Restoration of the management of Sri Subrahmanyaswar Swami and other temples at Kasarvalli, Thirthahalli Taluk.

F A C T S:- In Government Order No.108-9 dated 12th July 1911, the management of these temples was taken away from appellant's father and assumed by Government owing to slack management on the part of the then Vahivat dar. The latter prayed for a review of the said Government Order considering that he agreed to the Treasure Trove found in the temple premises in 1891 being appropriated wholly for the use of the temple The appellant now agrees to reside at Kasaravalli and manage affairs according to the scale fixed by Government. The Deputy Commissioner recommends - restoration.

POINTS FOR DISPOSAL:- Is the system of "Vahivat" to be continued in cases like the present one? (vide Secretary's Note on pages 6 and 7 of the Notes).
